Newsletter #28

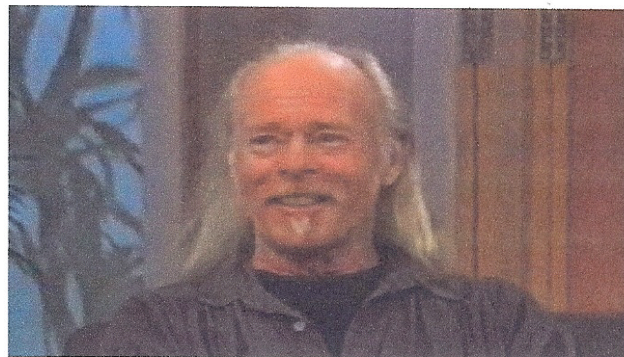

sent March 2008

Dear Friends and Fan Club Family,
A big WELCOME to all newsletters subscribers, those who joined through the fan club, or wrote e-mails. It's always great making new friends and chatting with old ones!
I'd also like to remind you about Member Spotlight on the website. If you haven't posted your information or pictures yet, please visit and see what it's all about...it's a fun feature, and I'd love to see more of you there!

Music 101 with Sarah McMullan, National Radio:

"Amazing one-man band Steve McDonald is the subject of today's Musical-chairs, a guy who has been entertaining pub crowds for several decades with his bank of electronics and flowing silver locks. He's lately been drawing on his Celtic heritage, but his grounding was in 60's pop and as a member of Dizzy Limits and Human Instinct."

Steve's wee blurb

Been working with my three piece covers band a lot lately, (The Rocket Brothers) I'm doing more shows with them than the Celtic show, but I still throw in the odd Celtic song. I will be posting gigs on the web site very soon, mostly Rocket Bros as my own music seems to be aimed more at private gigs lately. A gig I can tell you of is St. Patrick's day 17th March at the Blackharp Tavern, we are billed as "The O'Rielly Brothers" will probably have a female violinist but the name will still read Brothers, nothing personally."

cheers

Steve

On The Road News

We need some more of Steve's fans to blow their own horn!

I know that everyone who loves Steve's music tells their friends about it, and shares his music. Write in and let me know, and I will post your stories, and enter you to win an autographed CD!

The Steve McDonald On The Road Team is a very special group of Steve's listeners who help promote his music. I know through your emails to me that many of you are already doing this by telling friends about his music, posting about his music on message boards and asking for his CDs in stores. Thank you for all your efforts! We're thrilled by your support, and I'd love to encourage you to spread the word of his music!

That's all for this month

Please remember that Steve enjoys hearing from all of you, so be sure to send him an email at stevemcdonald@ethereanmusic.com

He has asked me to

"Please assure people that I do read their letters and appreciate them very much."
